

Romans – Lesson 1 Workbook

Unashamed

Romans 1:16-17

1. Of what does Paul state he is unashamed?

---

---

2. According to this verse, what is the Gospel?

---

---

3. Who can enjoy salvation?

---

---

4. What does the Gospel reveal, according to verse 17?

---

---

5. That righteousness is enjoyed by those who do what?

---

---

THE GOSPEL

Workbook Activity

The Gospel in 90 seconds

Explain the gospel in just one or two sentences.

---

---

---

---

---

---

FAITH
Romans 1:16-17

1. What is the connection between righteousness and faith?

---

---

2. What do you think "the righteous shall live by faith" means?

---

---

Habakkuk 2:4

1. In this verse, what is the opposite of someone living righteously by faith?

---

---

2. What is worse: being arrogant and prideful or having evil desires?

---

---

3. How would Paul's original listeners have heard this command? What would it have looked like for them to live by faith?

---

---

4. How many of you know someone who is a really great person but is very proud of that fact—who thinks of him or herself as better than everyone else? How does that attitude defy the command, "The righteous shall live by faith"?

---

---

5. How many of you know someone who is just out of control, lives for selfish desires, and is a jerk? How does that lifestyle defy the command "the righteous shall live by faith"?

---

---

Romans 4:18-25

1. What sticks out to you about that passage?

---

---

2. How does it make you feel to know that you can be credited with righteousness no matter what you've done wrong if you place your faith in Jesus?

---

---

PEACE

Romans 5:1-5, 1:16-17

1. What in these two verses should bring us peace?

---

---

2. When Paul writes in verse 5:1 that we have been justified through faith and thus have peace, what does that mean to you?

---

---

3. How have you experienced peace with God through your life of faith?

---

---

Romans 15:13, 16:20

1. How do the challenges of this section of Romans settle with you?

---

---

2. What's one thing you are wrestling with as an action point?

---

---

3. What's one thing we can pray about for you?

---

---

Homework

- Memorize Romans 1:16-17
- Allow the Gospel to change you.
- Do not be ashamed of your faith in Christ, share your faith and the peace that it brings with those who don't know Him.